Fact Sheet

The Kansas CSFP Program

WHAT IS CSFP?

CSFP stands for the Commodity Supplemental Food Program. It's a USDA federally-funded program, and provides food and nutrition education to income eligible pregnant, breastfeeding and postpartum women, children (up to six years of age), and elderly (60 years of age or older).

CSFP ELIGIBILITY INCLUDES:

Income Eligibility: For women and children, household income less than 185% of the poverty.

Also, women and children that are income eligible for local benefits under existing Federal, State, or Local food, health, or welfare programs are automatically income eligible for CSFP.

For elderly, household income less than 130% of poverty (the same as food stamps).

Residency Eligibility: Must live in counties served by this program (see below).

Categorical Eligibility: Must be a pregnant, breastfeeding, or postpartum woman, child up to six years of age or elderly (60 years of age or older).

CSFP FOOD PACKAGE MAY INCLUDE:

Cheese, Evaporated Milk, Nonfat Dry Milk (every other month), Peanut Butter or Dry Beans, Cereal, Canned Meat, Canned Vegetables, Canned Fruits, Juice, and Instant Potatoes, Rice or Pasta. Infant Formula and Infant Cereal may also be available.
